Dear Mr. Duckett:

The time is rapidly approaching for your visit to the Army War College. We are all looking forward to your presentation on Soviet Science and Technology on ~~6~~⁵ November.

I am inclosing some materials from the course directive which may be useful to you. These are not intended to limit your treatment of the subject in any way but merely to suggest a few areas we would like you to emphasize.

For your information, the class is cleared for Top Secret. This, of course, somewhat limits the extent to which you can go into details on the more exotic aspects of Soviet military R and D. But I know you will be able to present a good idea of the threat despite these limitations. Incidentally, the College is able to handle just about any type of slide or other training aid you may desire to use.

The Visitors Bureau will be in contact with you on your travel plans. Please let me know if I can assist you in any way.

Sincerely,

C. G. Fitzgerald
